

Newspaper: Daily Times

Date: July 7, 2008

Page: _____

Rhode Island Student Loan Authority honors WW residents

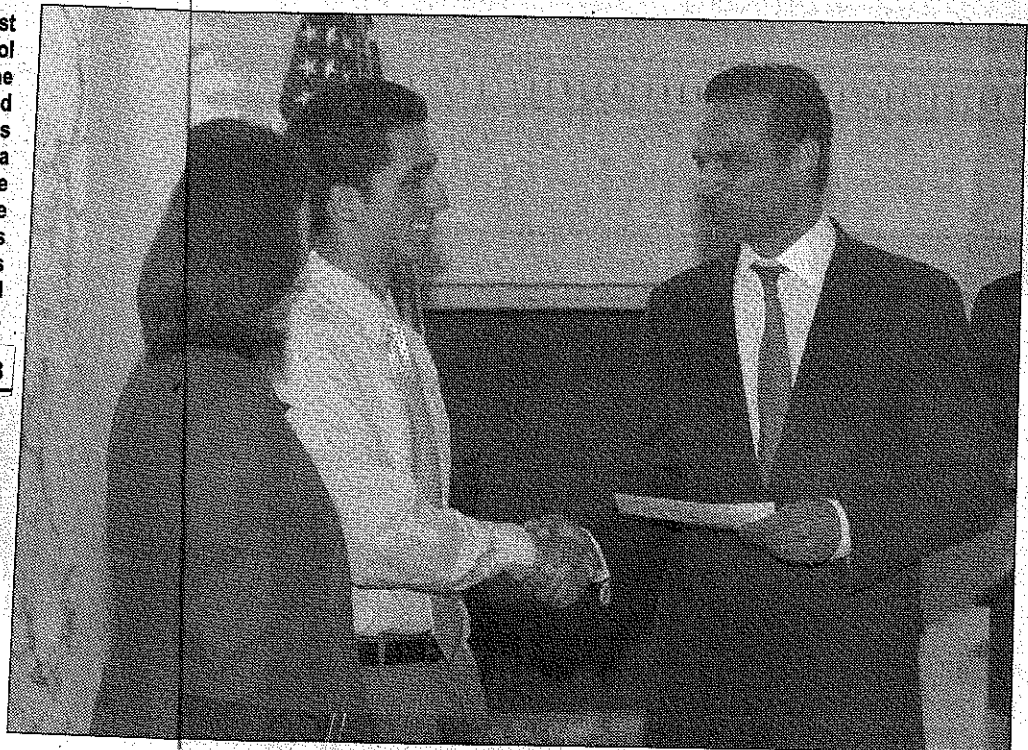

West Warwick residents Aaron Acquisto and Nathan Morin were honored at a brief ceremony at the Rhode Island Statehouse on June 24 and 25. Recipients of the Paul V. Sherlock Scholarship were honored at a ceremony with Lt. Governor Elizabeth Roberts and General Treasurer

Frank Caprio. Charles Kelley, executive director of the Rhode Island Student Loan Authority, served as Master of Ceremonies and announced the 25 high school students, representing 17 Rhode Island high schools, of $2,000 scholarships. Nathan Morin graduated from Bishop Hendricken and will attend Seton Hall University in New Jersey in the fall. He will be majoring in secondary education. Aaron Acquisto graduated from West Warwick High School and will attend Rhode Island College. He will major in nursing.

Aaron Acquisto, a West Warwick High School graduate, accepts the lieutenant governor's and the general treasurer's congratulations during a ceremony at the Statehouse honoring the 25 high school students receiving scholarships from the Rhode Island Student Loan Authority.

MONDAY, JULY 7 2008

Submitted Photo

Nathan Morin's mother (center) accepts the Paul V. Sherlock Scholarship from the Rhode Island Student Loan Authority on her son's behalf. Presenting the award was Lt. Governor Elizabeth Roberts and General Treasurer Frank Caprio. Morin is a West Warwick resident who recently graduated from Bishop Hendricken and is attending Seton Hall University in the fall.

Page 2 of 2